[The text is written in a dense, cursive Tibetan script. It appears to be a liturgical or philosophical passage, possibly from a Kangyur. The script is highly stylized and compact. There are some larger characters that might be section markers or specific terms. The text is arranged in several lines, with some characters being larger and more prominent than others, suggesting a hierarchical or structural organization. The overall appearance is that of a traditional manuscript, with some wear and tear visible at the edges.]
